Ann Wendell's artistic eye has meticulously documented the neighborhood's evolution, showcasing its architectural heritage and the enduring spirit of its residents.

Architectural Gems and Hidden Treasures

One of the most striking features of the Ravenna neighborhood is its remarkable architecture. From grand Victorian mansions to cozy Craftsman bungalows, the homes here are a testament to the city's rich history and architectural diversity. Ann Wendell's photographs capture the intricate details of these architectural gems, highlighting the unique character and charm that sets Ravenna apart.

Beyond the grand facades, the neighborhood is also home to hidden treasures that reveal its eclectic spirit. Tucked away in the heart of Ravenna is the Ravenna-Eckstein Community Center, a beloved gathering place for residents and community events. The center's stunning stained-glass windows, designed by renowned artist George Tsutakawa, add a vibrant touch to the neighborhood's landscape.

A Vibrant Community Spirit

The Ravenna neighborhood is more than just a collection of beautiful homes and architecture; it is a vibrant and close-knit community. Ann Wendell's photographs capture the essence of this community spirit, from neighborhood gatherings to local festivals.

The annual Ravenna Harvest Festival, held every September, is a vibrant celebration of the neighborhood's community and creativity. Residents gather to enjoy live music, art exhibitions, and delicious food, all while supporting local organizations and businesses.
