Synopsis

In a realm where reality and dreams intertwine, Laurel Sewell is about to discover the hidden secrets of her world. A world where Faerie exists, and the line between humans and fairies is blurred.

Laurel has always felt different, like she didn't quite belong. But when she meets David, a mysterious boy from Faerie, she begins to realize that her true destiny lies in a world beyond her wildest imaginings.

David introduces Laurel to Faerie, a realm of beauty and wonder, where time seems to stand still and magic flows through the air. But Faerie is also a dangerous place, filled with creatures of darkness that seek to exploit the power of illusions.

As Laurel and David's relationship deepens, they must face the challenges of two worlds. They must confront the forces that threaten to tear them apart, and they must learn to navigate the treacherous path between reality and illusion.
