Synopsis

Little Truff is a truffle-hunting pig who lives in the forest with his family. He is a very clever pig, and he is always finding the best truffles. One day, Little Truff finds a Siamese cat in the forest. The cat is lost and scared, and Little Truff takes him home to his family.

Little Truff and the Siamese cat, whom Truff names "Mewsette", quickly become friends. They play together every day, and they go on adventures in the forest. One day, they find a map to a lost treasure. The treasure is hidden deep in the forest, and Little Truff and Mewsette decide to go on an adventure to find it.

Along the way, they meet many challenges. They have to cross a river, climb a mountain, and fight off a bear. But Little Truff and Mewsette never give up. They work together as a team, and they use their strengths to overcome every challenge.

Finally, they find the lost treasure. It is a beautiful golden crown, and it is worth a lot of money. Little Truff and Mewsette are very happy, and they decide to share the treasure with their families.
