From silly to spooky, these poems will have you giggling one moment and hiding under the covers the next. With vibrant illustrations and catchy rhythms, this book is perfect for kids who love a good scare.

So gather your courage and join us on a journey into the realm of monsters. But be warned, once you open this book, you may never sleep soundly again...

A few of our favorite poems from the book:

The Monster Under My Bed

There's a monster under my bed,

With big green eyes and a furry head.

He likes to tickle my toes at night,

And make me scream with all my might.

But I'm not afraid of the monster under my bed,

Because I know he's just a big teddy bear in disguise.

The Boogeyman

The Boogeyman is coming to get you,

So you better lock your doors and windows tight.

He'll sneak into your room in the middle of the night,

And steal you away into the darkness.

But don't be afraid, the Boogeyman isn't real,

He's just a story that grown-ups tell.

The Witch

The witch lives in a house on the hill,

And she loves to cast spells on people.

She can turn you into a frog or a mouse,

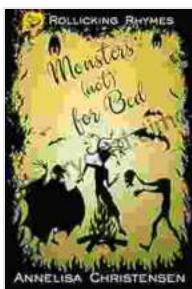

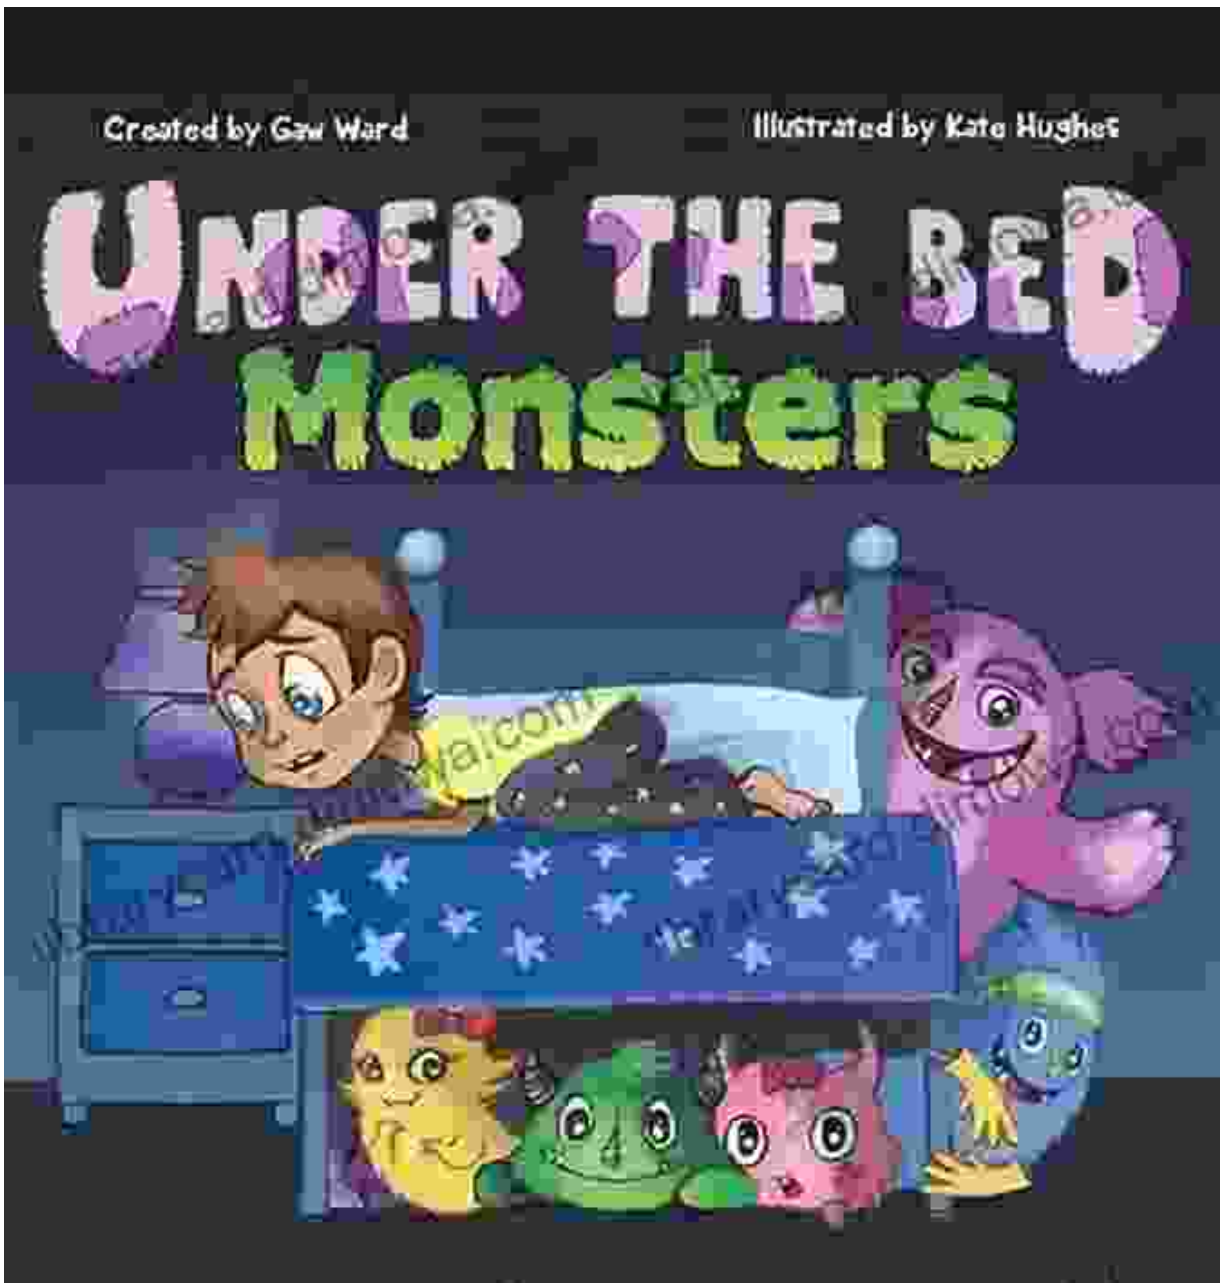

Or even make you disappear without a trace.

But don't be afraid, the witch isn't real,

She's just a character in a fairy tale.
