About the Book

Peppino: Good As Bread is a heartwarming and inspiring story about a young boy who overcomes adversity through his love of baking. Peppino lives in a small village in Italy with his grandmother, Mama Lucia. Mama Lucia is a talented baker, and she teaches Peppino everything she knows about the art of baking. Peppino loves to bake, and he dreams of one day becoming a famous baker.

But Peppino's life is not easy. His father is a fisherman, and he is often away at sea. Peppino's mother died when he was young, and he has no siblings. Mama Lucia is getting old, and she can no longer bake as much as she used to. Peppino is worried that he will have to give up his dream of becoming a baker.

One day, a famous baker visits Peppino's village. Peppino is determined to show the baker his skills, and he bakes him a beautiful loaf of bread. The baker is so impressed with Peppino's bread that he offers him a job as his apprentice. Peppino is thrilled, and he accepts the baker's offer.

Peppino works hard as the baker's apprentice, and he quickly learns all the secrets of the trade. He becomes a skilled baker, and he helps the baker create delicious breads, pastries, and other treats. Peppino's dream of becoming a famous baker is finally coming true.

Peppino: Good As Bread is a story about the power of love, resilience, and the importance of following your dreams. It is a beautifully illustrated book
