About the Book

The Challenge is a book that chronicles the journey of a group of ordinary people who set out to do something extraordinary: walk across America to raise money for cancer research. The book is a testament to the power of human spirit and the importance of giving back to our communities.

The walkers, who came from all walks of life, faced many challenges along the way. They walked through rain, snow, and heat. They slept in tents and on the ground. They faced physical and emotional exhaustion. But they never gave up. They kept walking, one mile at a time, until they reached their goal.

The walkers raised over $1 million for cancer research. But more importantly, they inspired others to make a difference in the world. The Challenge is a story about hope, determination, and the power of the human spirit.

Author

The Challenge was written by John Corcoran, a cancer survivor who walked across America in 2007. Corcoran is a motivational speaker and author who has written several books about cancer and survivorship.
