The Story of 'Twas the Evening of Christmas

The story of 'Twas the Evening of Christmas begins on a cold and snowy Christmas Eve. A young boy named Clement Moore is nestled snugly in his bed, dreaming of sugar plums and visions of Santa Claus. Suddenly, he hears a commotion outside his window and looks out to see a magical sight.

Santa Claus and his eight tiny reindeer are landing on the roof of his house! Clement watches in amazement as Santa Claus climbs down the chimney and begins to fill his stockings with toys.

But Clement is not the only one who is awake on this special night. All the creatures of the house are stirring, from the mice in the walls to the cats in the kitchen. They all watch in awe as Santa Claus spreads Christmas cheer throughout the house.

As Santa Claus finishes his work, he leaves Clement with a special gift: a beautiful doll that he has made himself. Clement is overjoyed, and he knows that this Christmas will be one that he will never forget.
